Conspiracy Suspect ⁵⁻¹ Wins Delay ¹⁰⁻³¹⁻⁶⁸

(Special to the States-Item)

LOS ANGELES—Edgar Eugene Bradley, accused of conspiracy in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, has won another delay in his effort to avoid extradition to Louisiana.

District Attorney Jim Garrison has issued a fugitive warrant for the 50-year-old North Hollywood resident.

The new delay was ordered yesterday by Municipal Judge Joan Dempsey Klein. Bradley's lawyer, George Jensen, argued that Gov. Ronald Reagan would need more time to decide on the extradition.

At an extradition hearing in Sacramento June 26, Bradley testified and submitted an affidavit claiming his innocence. He surrendered to authorities here last Dec. 27.

Bradley told newsmen if he wins his fight to avoid extradition, "I intend to seek criminal prosecution against anyone who conspired to frame me."
